Notes: - This sheet provides clarifying examples of 4th Degree Regalia items.

- The purpose is to provide supplemental information to the Color Corps Manual (808 6-08). It is not its replacement.
- These Regalia items, as described, are assets to the overall uniformity, quality and formality of the Fourth Degree.
- All items shall be in good repair & presentation, adding to the dignity of an event, never distracting from it.
- Active duty military, fulltime police & firemen are in proper candidate attire when wearing their Class A dress uniform.
- If there is uncertainty or question, contact the Faithful Navigator or Color Corps Commander.
- Service Regalia (aka Color Corps Regalia) also includes cape, chapeau, white gloves, sword with the service baldric replacing the social baldric, and the National Pin (PG-745US) replacing the 4th Degree Pin (PG-113).
